W: Thanks a lot. I'm sure I can get some nice school things for my students.

M: You're welcome. Of course you will.

M: Alice, you have a younger sister, right?

W: Yes, Mike. Her name is Sally. But why do you ask?

M: I saw a girl in the library this afternoon, Tom told me that's your sister.

W: Oh, I was at home helping my mom clean the house. Sally did go to the library.

M: Yes, it's broken. What's up, Jenny?

W: It is from the new recycling factory. They take out the metal parts of the pen and reuse them to make other things.

M: That's amazing. What else can we collect?

W: Waste keys, or your old telephones.

M: Great! I guess I have many things to give away.

W: Well, maybe the best thing to do is just to keep using your things as long as you can.

M: So, what do you do when you use the Internet?

W: Well, I send and receive e-mails. I only get about 3 or 4. In fact, I prefer writing letters with pen and paper instead.

M: Yeah, I'm the same way. Do you do anything else on the Internet?

W: Well, sometimes I look up information I need for school work. It saves me time, rather than looking through books in the library.

M: Yes, it sure does. Thanks for talking with me, Sue.

C) 请听下面一段独白, 根据独白内容完成下列句子, 每个空格不超过 3 个单词。将答案填写到答题卡的相应位置。听独白前你将有 50 秒钟的时间阅读句子内容。独白读两遍。(每小题 1 分)

Dear Mr. Miller,

I do hope you enjoy your stay in our home. You'll find it's small but it has got everything you will need. I don't know how tall you are, but our house was built in 1558 and people were shorter then! Be careful of the doors, they're very low and it's easy to knock your head.

The bathroom is at the top of the stairs. It doesn't have much space to keep anything in but there are extra towels in the spare bedroom. If you need it, the washing machine is in the kitchen and it's quite easy to use.

By the way, there isn't a shop in the village but there is a supermarket in town. If you don't want to cook, the restaurants along the river have some good food. And the river is very pretty at this time of year.

Do let me know if you need any other information.

Yours sincerely
Mrs. Potter

One possible version:

Dear teachers and students,

Today I'd like to introduce paper cutting to you, which is my favorite Chinese art form.

Chinese paper cutting has a long history of over 2,000 years. It can be seen in different parts of China. Many people, no matter young or old, enjoy this beautiful traditional art form. People cut red paper into different shapes, like birds, animals, flowers and so on.

I think Chinese paper cutting is not only beautiful but also very meaningful. People usually put them on doors or windows when they celebrate something happy, especially for the Spring Festival. What's more, we Chinese people think the paper cutting can get rid of bad luck and bring good wishes in the new year. It's also a symbol of Chinese people's wisdom. Why not have a try to make one by yourself? I'm sure you'll fall in love with it.
